

Kimberly Dark in Portland Tonight!

By Lipstick and Dipstick | October 19, 2007

Hey all you Portland peeps. If you don't have plans tonight, make sure you head over to In Other Words Bookstore at 8 NE.

Killingsworth and see this amazing performance artist Kimberly Dark. From In Other Words, "Kimberly Dark's writings and performances have delighted and incited audiences at theaters and universities across North America and Europe. Her themes explore gender, sexuality, abuse, poverty and education. Her work blends humor, poetry, story telling, education and social research to stimulate critical analysis around the culture in which we live. Don't miss this exciting and stimulating event."

Kimberly is an amazing story teller, in the old fashioned sense. Yet her stories are nothing but modern and queer. Tales of tough butches, high class femmes, strippers, sexuality and culture are capture our culture like few can. Take this recommendation from Dipstick. You won't be disappointed. KimberlyDark.com or In Other Words for more info.

kimberlydark.com